Have questions about graduate school?
Come get answers!

The Center for Dynamics and Control of Materials is hosting a Sciences & Engineering Grad School 101 Event. If you have questions about graduate school, we can answer them! Hear from UT Austin graduate students about why UT Austin is a great choice for graduate school. The seminar will cover how to decide if graduate school is right for you and best practices on searching for, applying to, and deciding on graduate school. Register here!
