

THIS IS A TIME FOR CELEBRATION!

The PRE-THESIS CLASS OF 2020

proudly presents 5 unfinished films

Saturday, May 16 at 7:00 pm

Zoom Q and A will follow the films

Hao-Wei (Tim) Chang
pronouns: he, him

FOILED 11:43

When 10-year old Dylan and his younger brother Cody accidentally rip their best friend's baseball card, they must fix it or risk never getting to play baseball again.

David (Edem) Dotse
pronouns: he, him

Music To Die To 10:40

When her brother skips out on his mother's funeral for a spiritual experience in the woods, Amara must bring him back to reality.

Hope Wager
(pronouns she, her)

Green and Growing Things 11:44

When a young woman meets a mysterious stranger living in an abandoned cabin a dark secret is brought to the surface.

Andrew Neylon
Pronouns: they, them

Frozen in Time 13:33

After learning of a terrible family secret, Gary, a reserved college student, must choose whether to pursue the truth about his recently deceased father and risk fracturing his family further.

Dana C. Reilly

Pronouns: she, her

Queen of the Road 16:00

Tamara, a long-distance truck driver, seeks community and empowerment by documenting her experiences on YouTube.

Special Thanks: Miguel Alvarez, Ya'Ke Smith, Kathy Fuller Seeley, Paul Stekler, Lalitha Gopalan, Cindy McCreery, Andrew Shea, Stuart Kelban, Noah Isenberg, and the Zoom faculty who helped us with editing decisions and kept us going;

Keefe Boerner, Susanne Kraft, Jeremy Gruy, Kai Tran, Elana Wakeman, Stacy Brody, Rachel Walker and all the RTF staff who saved us time and time again with their patience, good will, and expertise; and the 2nd year MFA cohort: Tim Chang, Edem Dotse, Mary Esquibel, Emily Grooms, Sachin Mudigonda, Andrew Neylon, Dana Reilly, Alex Rosales, Cristin Stephens, Sebastian Valdivieso, Hope Wager, and Ann Chen (copy editor).

A virtual applause to our audience.